Quimper & Surrounds

Quimper

Quimper, ancient capital of Cornouaille with has a distinctive Breton character has a rustic atmosphere with footbridges spanning the rivers that flow through it. The Church of Locmaria, a Romanesque structure, dates from the eleventh century. The Cathedral of Saint-Corentin, with its Gothic-style façade, was constructed between the thirteenth and sixteenth centuries.

Locronan Medieval Village

Locronan , a small town built at the foot of a hill was granted town status in 1505 by Anne of Brittany, who went there on a pilgrimage.

Pont Croix

Pont-Croix, probably founded around the tenth or eleventh century is close to a point situated upstream on the GOYEN estuary formed a vital link between the coastal regions of Cap Sizun and the Bigouden countryside where the bridge of Keridreuff was built. A tidal mill (moulin a maree), one of the oldest in Brittany, was built on this bridge.

Sainte Anne D'Auray

The highlight of this tour is a visit to Brittany's spiritual capital Sainte-Anne d'Auray and her Basilica - a major site of pilgrimage.

Sainte-Anne, mother of the Virgin Mary, Jesus' grandmother, is the patron saint of Brittany.

Every summer, there is the Grand Pardon of Sainte Anne, the largest pilgrimage in the region on July 26, the feast of St. Anne

Attend a famous Breton pardon

Annual Pardon Dates

26 July	Sainte Anne D'Auray
Last Sunday of August	Saine Anne La Palud

Breton Pardon

A Pardon is a typically Breton form of pilgrimage and one of the most traditional demonstrations of popular Catholicism in Brittany.

Of ancient origin, probably dating back to the conversion of the country by the Celtic monks

“A Pilgrimage may only be a day long ... but it lasts a lifetime”
